

EU Competition Law Enforcement: Challenges to Be Overcome

International Conference of the Jean Monnet Network on EU Law Enforcement (EULEN)
Faculty of Management, University of Warsaw, Szturmowa 1/3, Room C

Please fill in this form to attend the conference

DAY 1: THURSDAY, 26 MAY 2022 (13:30)

Welcome address (13:30-13:40)

Grzegorz Karasiewicz, Dean of the Faculty of Management, University of Warsaw
Maciej Bernatt and Laura Zoboli, University of Warsaw

Opening keynote speech (13:40-14:10)

Anna Gerbrandy, Utrecht University, Moving towards sustainability as a case study for thinking about challenges for EU Competition Law

PANEL 1: ECN+ and beyond (14:10-15:40)

Chair: Federico Ghezzi, Bocconi University

Kamil Dobosz, Krakow University of Economics, National competition law – time to say goodbye?, commented by Maciej Bernatt, University of Warsaw

Jasper Sluijs, Utrecht University, Anticompetitive Behavior by Public Entities: Experimental Evidence and Implications for Enforcement, commented by Agata Jurkowska-Gomułka, UITM, Rzeszow

Jasminka Pecotic Kaufman, University of Zagreb, Judicial Interpretation and Competition Rules: Excessively Stringent Standard of Proof as a Threat for Effectiveness of Competition Law Enforcement, commented by Agata Jurkowska-Gomułka, UITM, Rzeszow

Coffee break (15:40-16:00)

PANEL 2: Procedural challenges (16:00-18:00)

Chair: Maciej Bernatt, University of Warsaw

Or Brook, University of Leeds & Kati Cseres, University of Amsterdam, Priority Setting in EU Competition Law Enforcement, commented by Mariateresa Maggolino, Bocconi University

Bruce Wardhaugh, Durham University, Enforcement of Competition Law in Times of Crisis: Is Guided Self-Assessment the Answer?, commented by Federico Ghezzi, Bocconi University

Selçukhan Ünekbaş, European University Institute, The Resurrection of the Comfort Letter: Back to the Future?, commented by Jasminka Pecotic Kaufman, University of Zagreb

Lena Hornkohl, Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for International, European and Regulatory Procedural Law, Leave it to the professionals: a call for expert judges in private enforcement of competition law, commented by Jasper Sluijs, Utrecht University

Speakers' dinner (20:00)

DAY 2: FRIDAY, 27 MAY 2022 (9:30)

ROUNDTABLE: Rule of law and enforcement of competition law (9:30-10:40)

Moderator: Maciej Bernatt, University of Warsaw

Adam Bodnar, SWPS University in Warsaw

Kati Cseres, University of Amsterdam

Małgorzata Kozak, Utrecht University

Dawid Miąsik, Polish Supreme Court and Polish Academy of Sciences

Giorgio Monti, Tilburg University

Coffee break (10:40-11:00)

PANEL 3: Frontiers of competition law enforcement (11:00-12:30)

Chair: Adam Jasser, University of Warsaw

Isabella Lorenzoni, University of Luxembourg, Why do Competition Authorities need Artificial Intelligence?, commented by Mariateresa Maggiolino, Bocconi University

Marta Sznajder, University of Warsaw, The role of competition law enforcement in preserving media pluralism, commented by Małgorzata Kozak, Utrecht University

Marek Martyniszyn, Queen's University Belfast, Extraterritoriality in EU Competition Law: Shifting the Paradigm?, commented by Alexandr Svetlicinii, University of Macau

Lunch (12:30-13:50)

PANEL 4: Antitrust enforcement and EU regulation of digital markets (13:50-15:20)

Chair: Laura Zoboli, University of Warsaw

Nataliia Mazaraki & Anzhelika Gerasymenko, Kyiv National Trade and Economics University, Competition law enforcement in Ukraine: challenges from the Big Four and national online giants, commented by Giuseppe Colangelo, University of Basilicata

Christophe Carugati, Paris Centre for Law and Economics, The Role of National Authorities in the Digital Markets Act, commented by Giuseppe Colangelo, University of Basilicata

Tabea Bauermeister, University of Hamburg, The German "Lex GAFA" – lighthouse project or superfluous national solo run?, commented by Marco Botta, EUI

Coffee break (15:20-15:40)

PANEL 5: The challenges and perils of the digital economy (15:40-17:10)

Chair: Mariateresa Maggiolino, Bocconi University

Pauline Phoa & Anna Gerbrandy, Utrecht University, Conceptualising the power of big tech companies and its implications for competition enforcement, commented by Marco Botta, EUI

Jeanne Mouton, Université Côte d'Azur, The digital economy as a threat to the private enforcement of competition law, commented by Giorgio Monti, Tilburg University

Giuseppe Colangelo, University of Basilicata & Laura Zoboli, University of Warsaw, Amazon Buy Box case: the dawn of self-preferencing case law?, commented by Giorgio Monti, Tilburg University

Concluding remarks

Maciej Bernatt and Laura Zoboli, University of Warsaw

Hipster Antitrust Walk in Warsaw (19:00)